

You are invited to join Circles for Reconciliation

Reconciliation cannot be put on hold...

Canada's Truth and Reconciliation Commission defines reconciliation as the pressing need to "create and maintain mutually respectful relationships between Indigenous and non-Indigenous people."

The journey towards this goal continues and we are welcoming new registrations for Circles from a growing number of locations across Canada.

- 🔥 Ten persons (5 Indigenous, 5 non-Indigenous) meet once a week for 10 weeks to address reconciliation.
- 🔥 Each person is respected and given uninterrupted time to share and to listen.
- 🔥 Held in a safe setting, led by two trained facilitators (1 Indigenous and 1 non-Indigenous).
- 🔥 Circles are offered in-person (where permitted) and via Zoom.
- 🔥 No cost to participants! We only ask for a commitment to treat everyone in the group with respect & courtesy.
- 🔥 We promote reconciliation through equality of opportunity for all people.
- 🔥 Each week there is a presentation on one aspect of our colonial history.
