

We acknowledge that our water is sourced from Shoal Lake 40 First Nation. We are gathered on Treaty one land, les terres sur lesquelles nous sommes rassemblés aujourd'hui font partie du territoire traditionnel des personnes Anishinaabeg, Ininiwak, Anishininiwak, Dakota, et Déné, et de la patrie de la nation métisse de la Rivière Rouge.

We stand with the Indigenous community and commit to building an ongoing process of reconciliation, collaboration, and resurgence. Nous restons déterminés à travailler en partenariat avec les Premières Nations, Inuit et Métisses dans un esprit de vérité, réconciliation et collaboration.

Wednesday Announcements – November 27

Day 5

Intramural Handball sign ups start on Monday, November 25th to Thursday, November 28th outside of the center gym during lunch. Sign-up in teams of 8. There will be 2 tiers, a competitive tier and a non competitive tier. There will be a captain's meeting on December 4th and the intramural will be starting on December 10th.

The AWRC will be held in room 205W this week due to the library being used for grad photos. We will return to the library next week.

Tomorrow evening is our Jazz Ensembles Concert. Come and see all of our jazz bands and vocal jazz groups in action. The show starts at 7 pm in SOPAC and admission is free!

- GC Paws For A Cause is hosting a pop up bake sale today at lunch in the commons. This event is organized to raise money for The Humane Society to help abandoned animals. You can also show your support by purchasing and wearing our beautiful beaded bracelets! We'd love to see everyone there!
- There will be another NBA 2K "Hoops For the Homeless" challenge today at lunch in the Commons, where you can have some fun and support Siloam Mission. It is $2 to play with winners being entered into a draw for a GC prize package.

- GC Cookies For Cancer will be selling cookies at lunch. Come out and support a great cause!
- The Pink Ribbon Café will be open today at lunch in the SOPAC canteen. Hot and cold Lattes are available and all proceeds will be going towards women's cancer treatment and research.
- Anyone in Student Council interested in the holiday banner painting, meet in 308 east today at lunch! There will be a meeting for all members tomorrow at lunch as well in 308 East.
